Living the Now

*In looking ahead, may there be a celebration of now.
A present moment kindness, of things big and small.*

*In looking back, may there be appreciation.
A consciousness, an awareness of fit, loved or not.*

*In looking now, may there be living.
A flow, a joy of being.*

*And enough community, to remind us of belonging.
And enough solo, to remind us of deep center.*

In both mystery and clarity.

Best wishes in continued journey.
With gratitude.
